AFFIDAVIT OF ROY WILLIAMS, JR.

STATE OF TEXAS §
COUNTY OF ECTOR §

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this date personally appeared Roy Williams, Jr., known to me to be a credible person, who after being duly sworn upon his oath states as follows:

"I, Roy Williams, Jr. am over eighteen (18) years of age, have not been convicted of a felony criminal offense or a criminal offense involving moral turpitude, am of sound mind and am fully competent to testify to the matters stated herein.

Shortly before Valentine's Day of 2011, Brooke Daniels contacted me – the man she had been dating - at my home in Ector County and requested the sum of $5,000.00 for her alleged school and dental bills. I sent the funds to her - along with a baseball for her brother - in an overnight package. As a surprise, I also recorded a marriage proposal and included it and an engagement ring (having an approximate value of $76,600.00) in the package.

Subsequently, Ms. Daniels declined the marriage proposal but has refused to return the engagement ring. Initially, she simply refused to send back the ring. Approximately six weeks later – after I kept persisting that the ring be returned –Ms. Daniels claimed she had lost the ring.

Consequently, I reported to my insurer that the ring had been lost. My insurer performed an investigation which revealed that the "alleged mysterious disappearance or theft of the engagement ring did not occur." The investigation confirmed that the engagement ring is currently in the possession of Michael Daniels, Ms. Daniels' father. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the response I received from my insurer.

I have since made demand on both Brooke and Michael Daniels for return of the property and they have refused to surrender possession of it.

Further Affiant sayeth not."

Roy Williams, Jr.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, the undersigned Notary Public, on the 30 day of June, 2011.

Dear Mr. Williams

Our investigation has revealed the alleged mysterious disappearance or theft of the engagement ring did not occur. It has been confirmed the ring in question is currently in the possession of Mike Daniels, father to Brooke Daniels the recipient of the engagement ring. There is a dispute whether the ring was a gift from you to Brooke, or was she required to return the ring to you following her decline of the wedding proposal. This is a matter not defined as a covered loss under your Personal Articles Policy.

Feel free to contact us if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Joe Lewis
